J. SCHMID

Sandy,

Hi red!! Lol, rem. that first day of Kindergarten?
That's good, cause I don't. But rem. North Ward
& all the neat stuff we used to do! All those cool fights!!

Rem. all the times we went riding around!!
When you had the pick-up & we had to haul all that stuff for the banquet. That one time when we put eggs & jelly all over what's-her-name's car!! Aren't we naughty???

If it's the last thing we do --- we gotta tear this place ~~about~~ apart!!!

Happy trails to you. . . .

Nanc

Sandy,
Always rem. the passed three years and all the fun we had in soph English (even we had to make speeches) And the snake dance we had. If that dummy would have caught on fire we would of had a hard time trying to make other. And after the snake dance killing all the freshmen. Keep up the hard work in school
Wally

Wahoo finished in a tie for 2nd place with Ralston this year in the Northern-Division of the AK-SAR-BEN Conference. Wahoo finished with an 8-10 season, but it is interesting to note that 2 losses were the result of double-overtimes. Most of the other games were lost by a very close margin. With the regular season ended, Wahoo finished the year with a runner-up trophy in the Class B Districts held at Newman.

Ken qualifies for the State meet.

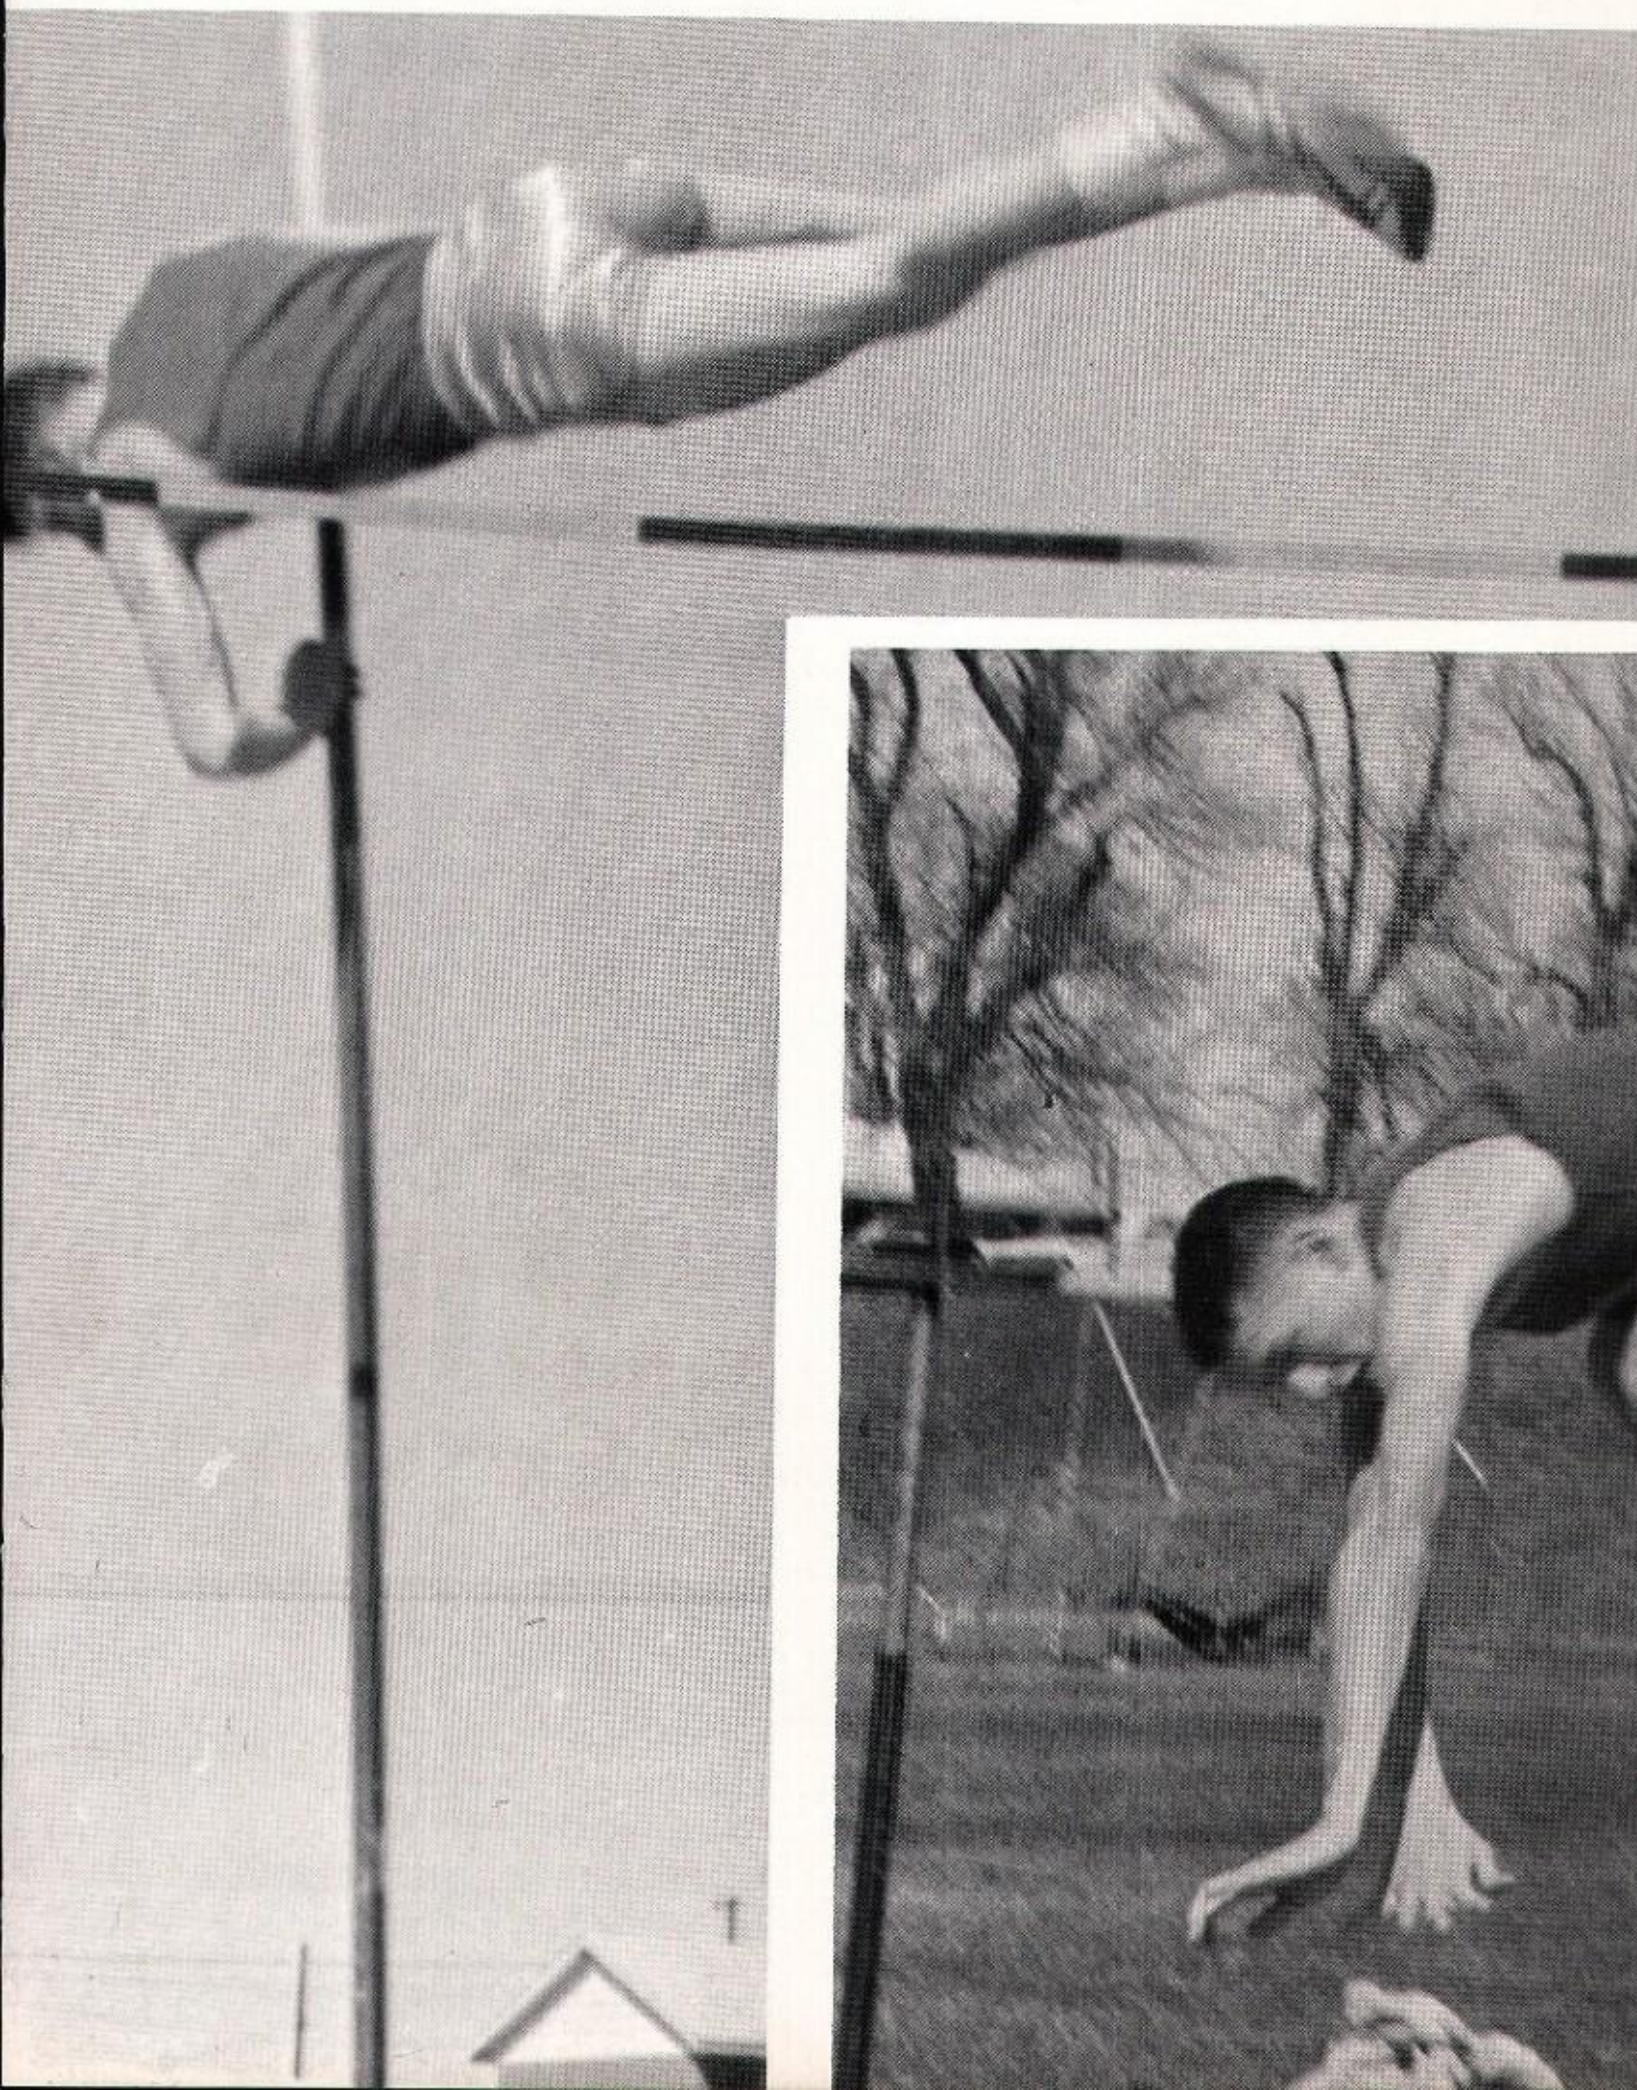

Wahoo participated in track meets with Ralston, Cathedral, Ashland, Millard, David City, and Ceresco in addition to the Midland Relays, AK-SAR-BEN Conference meet, class "B" District meet, and the State meet.

A record was set in the 880 relay by Frank Graff, Ron Divis, John Brodahl, and Ken Kontos with a time of 1:36.3. Steve Anderson tied the school record in the high jump with a leap of 6'1".

Larry completes the broad jump.

CROSS COUNTRY

Wahoo was the host of the Cross Country Conference Meet this year. The competing teams placed as follows: Ralston, Blair, Plattsmouth, Papillion, Syracuse, Millard, Ashland, Auburn, and Wahoo.

The Wahoo Squad also competed with other rival teams from Millard, Wahoo Neumann, Omaha Bryan, and Ashland.

The varsity squad wears the eager look of an anticipated victory.

The varsity runners for Wahoo were Royce Stuchlick, Tom Holtorf, Larry Stuchlick, Don Slosser, and Ken Smith.

Sandy,
After reading

STATE GOLF CHAMPS

The Wahoo Golf Team ended the year as State Champions in golf. Besides a 12-0 season record, the team won the AK-SAR-BEN Conference meet and placed second in the district meet.

The top four players included Dave Heineman, Mike Miller, Don Heineman, and Mike Edstrom.

Wahoo won the state tournament with a score of 247, two strokes ahead of Omaha Brownell-Talbot. Mike Miller finished second with a score of 78.

Which way did it go?

Heading for State.

Just a little push, Mike.

Don't take it out on the ball.

Let's get out of that sand, Don.

"W" CLUB

The "W" Club accepted many new members this year. New officers were elected with Joe Voboril being elected President, Jeff Sandstedt, Vice-President, and Mike Miller, Sec'y-Treas.

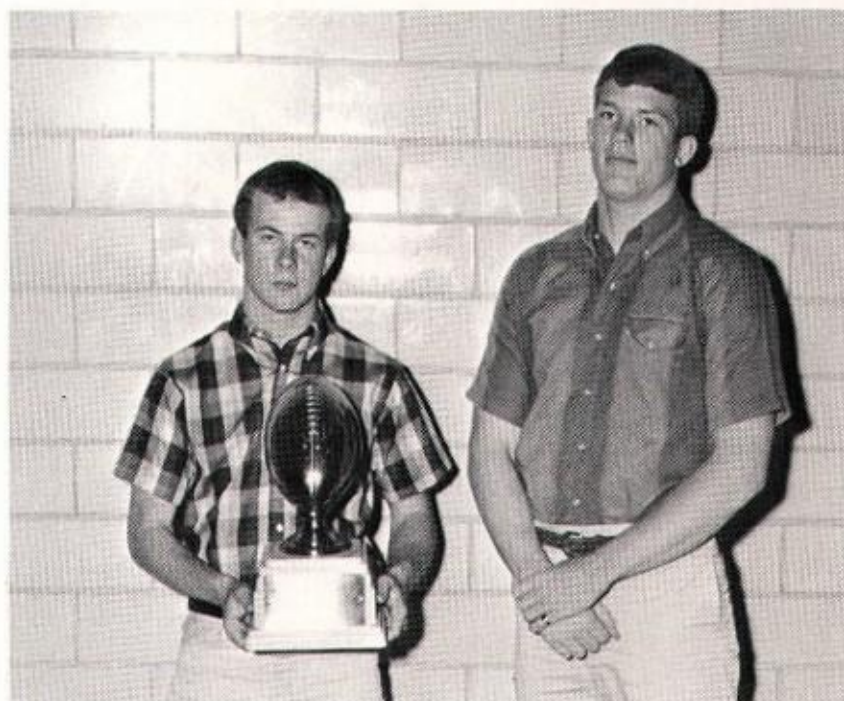

Among the activities of the "W" Club was the raising of funds at the Class "D" District Basketball Tournament. The highlight of the year for the club was the banquet for new members on May 16.

Jeff Sandstedt with the free throw trophy led the team with highest free throw percentage (67.7%). Jim Bronson shown holding the Class "B" District Runner-up trophy was the leading rebounder in basketball with 226 rebounds for the season.

Officers, Mike, Jeff, and Joe, lead the "W" Club's activities.

Bob Druery was selected as outstanding tackler for the football season. Jim Bronson was placed on the All-Conference Football team.

"How many demerits does that make?" That was a common expression heard across the Pep Club Council table.

PEP CLUB BOOSTS ENTHUSIASM

The Pep Club had an extremely busy season. It started the year with a Snake Dance to generate enthusiasm for the football season. The Homecoming activities included a bonfire, decorating the gym, making those adorable garters for the team to wear and taking part in the Homecoming Parade.

During the District Basketball Tourney, the girls were especially active. The girls could be seen every night putting signs on the players houses, serenading the boys, and finally kidnapping and treating them at Fairview.

Several changes have taken place this year. The traditional blue and gold outfits were changed to blue sailor-tops and blue skirts. The use of flash cards in the Pep Club section at the games, was another first at W.H.S.

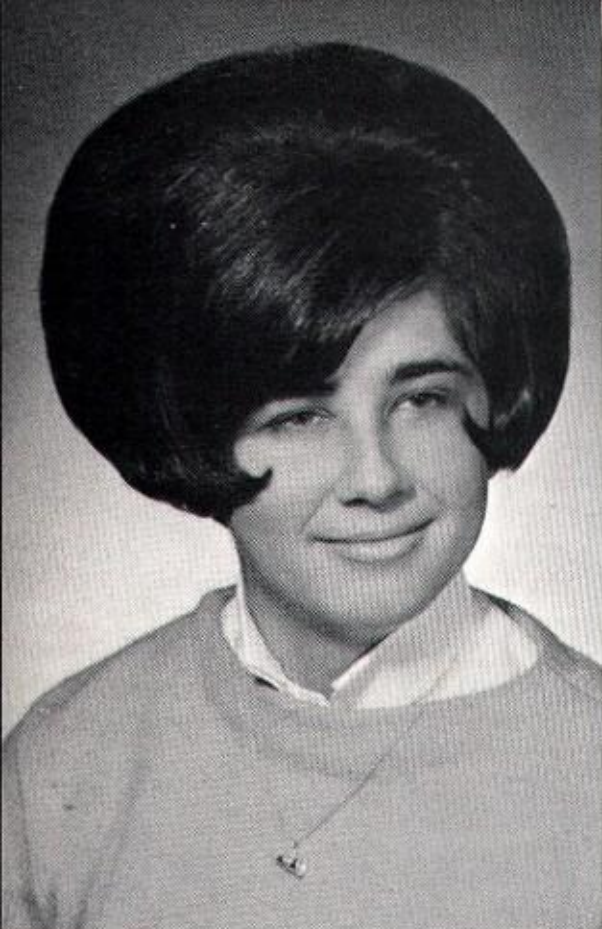

The year was highlighted by a dinner at the Star Broiler in Fremont.

Thanks to the work of the president Linda Holstein, and the sponsors, Mrs. Stockall and Mrs. Albers, the year was a big success.

Juniors Learn Functioning of Government Through County Government and Girl's State

Nancy Schmer has been selected to represent Wahoo this summer at Girl's State in Lincoln. She's shown here, sporting her Girl's State beanie, with Phyllis Barry who will represent Malmo.

Taking an active part in their campaigns, these students delivered witty speeches.

Participants in County Government Day included 15 juniors elected by their classmates. They observed, along with other students from the county, the duties of the offices to which they were elected. These juniors readily agreed that their day was educational.

W.H.S. SPEAKERS HAVE A BUSY SEASON

Speech and Drama students "learned by doing" this year by taking an active part in various speech contests. Students entered several different areas at these contests: Original Public Speaking, Extemporaneous, Informative Public Speaking, Oral Reading of Drama, and others. Instructed by Mr. Carlson, participants had a successful year, as can be seen by the Ak-Sar-Ben Conference trophy and many others.

THAT'S DEBATABLE

Skip, you're outnumbered!

The 1966 Debate Team learned a lot this year both in their class studies and in their debate tournaments. The debate team consisted of Susan Beaman, Skip Erickson, Nancy Ecklund, Nada Van Gennip, Jeanette Ecklund, Phyllis Barry, Linda Holstein, and Cheri Greenhalgh.

Taking an active part in Debate are J. Ecklund, P. Barry, C. Greenhalgh, and N. Ecklund.

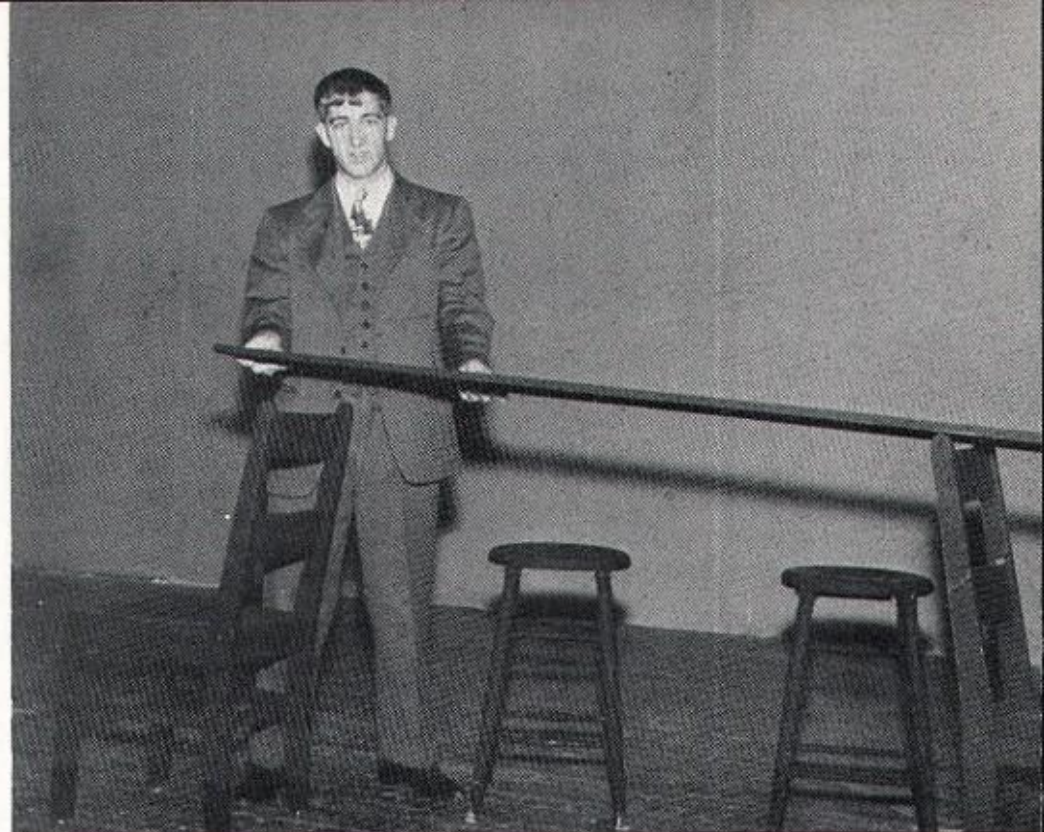

THAT'S DEBATABLE! This remark was often heard on debate trips. The W.H.S. Debate Team traveled to Kearney, Beatrice, Lincoln, and many other cities to debate the topic "Resolved: That the Federal Government Should Adopt a Program of Compulsory Arbitration in Labor Management Disputes in the Basic Industries."

Learning the town gossip on the street corner.

Wahoo High School presented the play "Our Town" under the direction of Mr. Carlson. The play was written by Thornton Wilder. The story was based on the lives of the people of Grovers Corners, a New England town during the early 1900's. This play was unique in that it was narrated by a stage manager, who periodically stopped the play to present some additional helpful explanation to the audience.

Sandy:

I miss at least!!! Rem. all the fun we have had in this school. Rem. Mr. Carlson and the class play. His class was so boring at times and we could get away with anything. I didn't think we would live off the play over with. The people of Wahoo not only saw the movie of "My Fair Lady" in 1966, but had the opportunity to see this famous production put on by the members of Wahoo High School.

The story is based upon a phonetics teacher who takes a young flower girl off the street and in six months passes her off as a princess.

An extremely large cast and a good deal of hard work and effort made this play a real credit to Wahoo High.

ROMAN HOLIDAY

Aren't we cute??

The centerpiece was a fountain.

The Theme of the Junior-Senior banquet this year was "A Roman Holiday," held in the basement of the First Presbyterian Church. There were many fine decorations including a chariot, a fountain, and many elegant pillars.

A skit was given by the prom servers who were dressed as Roman soldiers and maidens.

Speakers were Connie Manstedt, Joe Voboril, and Dr. Ward. Mrs. Albers sang two songs.

Decorating was half the fun, eh, Phyllis??

STAIRWAY TO THE STARS

After the banquet, everyone went to the dance where they danced under the stars to the music of the Semetrics. Many stars draped the ceiling, and guests entered by way of a terrace.

Forming a crown for the Homecoming royalty, members play "Memories."

The marching band of 1965-1966 appeared on several occasions. After drilling all day in near-zero temperature on a muddy football field, they competed in stiff competition at Pershing Auditorium in Lincoln. An excellent rating was received.

The spirits of the group were dampened during the Shriner's parade through downtown Lincoln by the rain. But the Shrine Bowl game made up for it.

The band also attended Band Day last fall at the University of Nebraska.

The group added much to the Homecoming festivities.

CONCERT BAND

The concert band gained a new director, Mr. McCormick, last fall. The seventy-seven piece band practiced daily to prepare for the Class B District Music Contest in April.

The members performed on several occasions, the first of which was a P.T.A. meeting.

The hard work of the director and band members has made the season a success.

Jane Edstrom leads the band in the homecoming parade.

CHORUS

Under the direction of their new director, Mr. McCormick, the Chorus has participated in various activities during the year.

This group added to the success of the Christmas Program by singing several numbers.

Kennedy College requested the Chorus to sing at the Dedication Ceremony of the college.

Twenty-five members were chosen to attend the Vocal Music Clinic at Millard, January 25.

In the spring the Chorus competed in the Class "B" District Music Contest.

Handwritten lyrics in blue ink:
 time you want to ride know you know who not to ask me! Rem- old the fun we had at the stable fair with those dumb T-shirts
 I wonder if you will drive her car back if you this year? If she does a hit it for her Rem- old the open wedding around and WILD AND Will have to more this everyone

Well, Sandi, We finally made it up to our Sr. year. Rem. all the things we've done together, like: all the parties and dances (Eck's party + I got my car stuck in the middle of the road - with Philly + Linda B.), Rem the Homecoming windows the class of '67 has made and all the work on the Vangard and the Prom. Rem the Plays? Do you think it's all been worth it? I do! If you don't we'll have to make up for it this year - cause it's our last. I'm sure gonna miss this old institution all the teachers + kids + all the activities. Well, I wish you all the best of luck to the girl who sits next to me in English as you were as sweet, cute, well liked girl and I'll see you at the class Reunion - HA-HA! I probably won't live that long Luck & LOVE, Bruce

There were six small vocal groups that represented Wahoo in the Class "B" Music Contest. The Girls Sextette received the top rating of a Superior. The other groups received fine ratings to prove that their hard work had paid off.

SCHOOL PERSONNEL ASSISTS AT WAHOO HIGH

Margaret Cole is a new addition to the personnel this year. Acting as the school nurse for all Wahoo Public Schools, she is kept quite busy going from one school to another to check the students' health. This seems to take a lot of time, especially when students get sick as often as Bobby Gilliam does!

November 26, 1965

"There comes a time for all of us, when we must say Goodbye,
But Faith and Hope and Love and Trust can never die;
Although the curtain falls at last is that a cause to grieve?
The future's fairer than the past if only we believe
And trust in God's eternal care. So when the Master calls Let's say that life is still more fair. Although the curtain falls."

Sandy,

Finally Seniors I don't feel any different.
Rem. all the fun we've had the past 3 years.
Rem. the night we went to get that fountain for the prom. Rem. all the times we went riding around and the night we saw those 2 cool boys. Rem. the night we were looking in the building back of J.F.K. College too bad we didn't find anything. Rem. the day we went horse back riding and your horse took off down at the swimming pool.
Rem. all the slumber parties we had. Boy and the cool time we had after the snake dance. Our dummy was the best so far.
That night when we walked down the middle of the street from Kath's to town kicking that can. We really have to make the best of this year because its our last. Good luck (thats what everybody else says) Oh yes I'll never forget your T-Shirt that was really funny.

Lots of Luck

Amy
